PRESENT THEIR MEMORIAL TO THE COMMISSION,

Senator Cullom Tells the Delegates of the Kalaiaina that They are Annexed Now and for All Time,

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the hirty-two delegates of the Hawaiian Patriotic League who have been in convention for two or three days past at the hall in the rear of the Opera House, marched from their hall to the Executive building and presented the memorial, the substance of which was given in yesterday's Star, Sena-tor Cullom ordered the doors thrown open and the delegates, including one woman, Mrs. Moamoa from Hana, Maui, were ushered into the room. They brought no interpreter, so the services of President Dole were again called on.

J. K. Kaulia introduced the dele-gates and R. H. Makehan of Waihee, Mani, read the memorial in English. Mr. Makehau's English, however, had such a decided Hawaiian accent that the Commissioners hardly grasped the full meaning of the words. When the reading was finished, Senator Cullom asked if anyone of the delegates of the Kalada. the Kalaiaina had anything further to say, and no answer being made, said; "Your memorial will be taken possion of and considered by the Com-mission. Before you leave, however, it is due to you that I should say that that annexatoin has been settled, Hawaii has now become a part of the United States, and there is no sort of probability of any change in that regard. The Commission is glad to have seen you all. Your memorial will be placed on file, reported at Washington, and given proper consideration.

AN OCEAN RACE. SAN FRANCISCO, September 5,-The captains of the Muriel and Honoipu are racing their vessels from San Francisco to Puget Sound, thence to Sydney, N. S. W., with a load of lumber, thence to Honolulu with a load of coal and then back to San Francisco with a load of sugar. The race is for a champagne dinner.

McKINLEY VISITS THE SICK. CAMP WIKOFF, Montauk Point, September 3.—President McKinley spent five hours in the camp today, bareheaded most of the time, visiting the sick in the hospitals and inspect-ing the well in their cantonments. He made a speech to the assembled infantrymen, reviewed the cavalry, ex-pressed his opinion of the camp to the reporters and issued an order directing the regiments to return to their stations cast of the Mississippi.
